MOCON Increases Quarterly Dividend

MINNEAPOLIS, MN, May 19, 2008 – MOCON, Inc. (NasdaqGM:MOCO) announced today that on May 16, 2008, its Board of Directors declared a quarterly cash dividend of eight and one-half cents ($0.085) per share, payable on August 15, 2008, to shareholders of record on August 1, 2008. This is a six percent increase over the previous rate of eight cents per share.

The Company has provided stockholders with quarterly dividends for the 80th consecutive quarter. Prior to the present policy of quarterly dividends, the Company had been paying dividends on a semi-annual basis since 1984.

MOCON is a leading provider of detectors, instruments, systems and consulting services to research laboratories, production facilities, and quality control and safety departments in the medical, pharmaceutical, food and beverage, packaging, environmental, oil and gas and other industries worldwide. See www.mocon.com for more information.

This press release contains forward-looking statements that are made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements include, but are not limited to, the above statements regarding future dividend payments, and can otherwise be identified by words such as “will,” “may,” “expect,” “believe,” “anticipate,” “estimate,” “continue,” or other similar expressions. All forward-looking statements speak only as of the date of this press release. MOCON undertakes no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. In addition to the risks and uncertainties of ordinary business operations and conditions in the general economy and the markets in which the Company competes, there are important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those anticipated by the forward-looking statements made in this press release. These factors include, but are not limited to, uncertainties relating to competition and technological change, worldwide economic and political stability, setbacks in product development programs, slower-than-anticipated customer acceptance of new products, dependence on certain key industries, risk associated with the Company's acquisition strategy and international operations, and other factors set forth in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2007 and other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

MOCON's shares are traded on the Nasdaq Global Market System under the symbol MOCO.
